The 22nd December 1887.

No. 174.—C. D. Ramaswamaiya, Amildar of Manjarabad Taluk, is hereby invested with the powers of a Magistrate of 2nd Class and with powers of a Magistrate of Police under Act XIII of 1859, temporarily, for a period of six months.

The 24th December 1887.

No. 175.—The following rules sanctioned by the Government of India for the control of the privilege of grazing in the reserved forests on the eastern border of Coorg allowed to the cattle of the Madras Public Cattle Depôt located at Hunsur and to the cattle of the Mysore Amrut Mahal Department, are published for general information.

Rules.

I. The officer in charge of the two Departments in question shall furnish the officer in charge of the Coorg forests with statements showing the number of each herd, the persons in charge of them, and the localities where they are ordered to be grazed.

II. The herdsmen shall report to the forester in charge their arrival in the forest, the situation of their camp, the number of cattle in their charge, and also their subsequent movements.

On the receipt of the report of their arrival, the forester in charge shall supply them with a list of such forest blocks and localities (describing the boundaries of each) as may be closed to grazing, either because they are planted, or otherwise in course of reproduction, or are specially protected for any other purpose of Forest conservancy.

III. The period for grazing the cattle in the Coorg forests shall be limited to the months of May, June, July and August.

IV. The Forest officer in charge of the forests in Coorg may demand that the sites of the camp shall be changed annually, may prescribe the routes which shall be taken to the grazing ground, also the number of cattle to be grazed in each locality and the length of the period of grazing in each block.

V. The herdsmen shall not—

1. Bring other than Government cattle into the forest without the special permission of the officer in charge of the Coorg forests, to whom application should be made in this respect through the officer in charge of the Government Cattle Department. Such application should show the number of private cattle for the grazing of which permission is asked.
2. Pasture cattle in excess of the number prescribed for each locality, or at times for which no permission is granted.
3. Allow their cattle to trespass and stray into, any closed portion of the forests or of roads authorized by the forest officer under Rule IV.
4. Camp in places not authorized under Rule IV.

Any breach of these rules shall be considered trespass under the Indian Forest Act.

VI. The herdsmen shall not—

1. Set fire to any grass, of forest growth, and kindle fires in a place and manner which may cause the spreading of such fires to grass or forest growth.
2. Cut, lop, or otherwise damage any forest growth: Provided that they may cut and use trees and branches of the unreserved kinds, necessary for erecting shelter, huts, and roppahs, but for no other purpose, and may use dry wood for fires.

VII. Any person grazing cattle in the Coorg forests, under cover of these rules, who may be proved to have acted in contravention of the provisions of Rule VI, or to have disobeyed any order given him by a Forest officer in accordance with Rules III and IV, will be liable to punishment under Section 25 of the Indian Forest Act, (1878).

Proceedings of the Dewan to His Highness the Maharaja of Mysore, (Revenue),—dated 14th December 1887.

READ THE FOLLOWING PAPERS:—

Letter from the Deputy Commissioner, Kolar District, No. 1378—401, dated 27th November 1887, regarding adjournment of revenue sales.

Also Dewan's Proceedings Camp No. 422, dated the 8th June 1885 providing that a revenue sale should be stopped if payment of arrears of kandayam is made before sunset of the day previous to the date of sale and not later.

No. 5526-30—Cir. 137, DATED 14TH DECEMBER 1887.

ORDER.—His Highness the Maharaja's Government hereby prescribe the following rules in regard to sales of immovable property for arrears of land revenue:—

"The Amildar, Deputy Amildar or any officer duly authorized, conducting a sale of immovable property for arrears of land revenue, may, in his discretion, adjourn any such sale to a specified day and hour, recording his reasons for such adjournment: Provided that when the sale is made in or within the precincts of the Taluk Cutcherry or the Deputy Amildar's office, no such adjournment shall be made without the leave of such Amildar or Deputy Amildar. Whenever a sale is adjourned under this rule for a longer period than seven days, a fresh proclamation, in accordance with the existing rules, shall be issued of the intended sale. Every such sale shall be stopped, if, before the property is knocked down, the arrears of land revenue with interest thereon and all costs (including the costs of the sale) are tendered to such officer, or proof is given to his satisfaction that the amount of such arrears, interest and costs has been paid to any officer or treasury authorized to receive or collect the same."

R. VIJAYINDRA RAO,
Chief Secretary.
